Profile

Aspiring Software Engineer currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Information Technology (BIT), with a strong foundation in Computer Engineering (+2). Passionate about web development, I have independently built 3–4 responsive and user-friendly websites, gaining solid hands-on experience in frontend technologies and programming. A self-motivated and disciplined learner, I continuously strive to improve my skills and contribute meaningfully to real-world projects. Actively seeking a web developer job or internship to enhance my growth in the tech industry and work towards becoming a skilled software engineer.
